- Marcia has owned and headed up her own company for just over 24 years -- a multi-disciplinary consulting firm called Creative Pursuits (also CPI Consulting).
- As one part of that work, she has been executive director for multiple statewide non-profit organizations.
- Three and a half years ago, she created the branch of her company specializing in the subject matter for the presentation today, innovative technology uses.
- She also was a trainer for 10 years with Anthony Robbins and his seminars throughout the country.
- She's a former senior manager with the State, including the Governor's Office, Department of Transportation, and Department of Environmental Regulation, and has been appointed to a variety of state advisory commissions and committees.
- She has a master's degree in engineering.
- And, last but not least, she is a certified firewalker plus a skydiver and ballroom dancer – and, when asked about her “burning passion”, the answer was a love for animals.

Comment: Audrey Castellon:

I was born in Coconut Grove, moved to Tallahassee with my parents when I was 6 months so my mother could attend FSU, then moved to Quincy when I was 5. Graduated highschool in Quincy and then college from FSU with a degree in Marketing, married her highschool sweetheart, Jason, they have 2 children - Emory 6 and Shaw 18 months. The oldest attends the same school she and her husband attended. For years she told Martha Scott at Magnolia House that she wanted her job, and now she has it. Rache'l is the Director of Marketing and Life Enrichment at Magnolia House Assisted Living in Quincy.
